

NORTHEAST TRANSITION
COLLABORATIVE NETWORK

The Northeast Transition Collaborative Network (NTCN) connects families, educators, and providers in the Massachusetts Northeast Region to support youth transitioning from school to adult services. Our goal is to unify resources, offer trainings, and create a collaborative space to promote person-centered planning and successful outcomes.

Keynote Speaker:
Kelly Challen

Empowering Student Voice: Practical Strategies for Transition IEPs

MARCH 17

SALEM STATE UNIVERSITY

ELLISON CAMPUS CENTER
VETERAN'S HALL

8:30 AM - 3:30 PM 1 MEIER DR, SALEM, MA

Educators will learn practical, student-centered strategies for strengthening student voice in the transition IEP process. The day will introduce a clear framework for using transition assessment, preparing students for meaningful participation in their IEP meetings, and applying real-world practices that support individualized postsecondary planning.

Scan the QR code or visit the link below

Ticket purchase is required.

<https://tinyurl.com/NTCNMarch26>

Kelley Challen, Ed.M., CAS, is a nationally recognized transition specialist with more than 20 years of experience helping students with diverse learning and developmental profiles plan meaningful paths to adulthood. Kelley will offer practical, evidence-based insights to help educators strengthen student engagement and build effective, student-centered transition planning practices.

Questions or accommodations? Please contact CommunityResourceCenter@ne-arc.org